ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the defendant's pro se Motion to Terminate Supervised Release. (Doc. No. 2).

On July 6, 2006, a court in the Western District of Washington sentenced the defendant to seventy months' incarceration and five years' supervised release for possession of cocaine base with intent to distribute and possessing a firearm as a felon. (Doc. No. 1: Judgment at 1-3). According to the defendant, he began his term of supervised release on March 2, 2010.

Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583(e)(1) allows courts to terminate supervised release after consideration of certain factors in § 3553(a) if warranted by the conduct of the defendant and the interest of justice. Here, the defendant reports current employment, no violations of the conditions of his release, and abstention from drug and alcohol use. These represent productive choices. However, given the defendant's prior criminal history and the circumstances of the instant drug and firearm offenses, the Court finds that early termination is not in the interest of justice.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the defendant's motion, (Doc. No. 2), is DENIED.

Signed: September 18, 2013

Robert J. Conrad, Jr.
United States District Judge
